UNDER SECTION 21 OF THE MUZRAI REGULATION

The appellant abovenamed begs to appeal against the order of the Revenue Commissioner in Muzrai Appeal No 8 of 1932-33 confirming the order of the Deputy Commissioner, Shimoga District, directing the removal of the Haladamma deity from the temple at Honnali to the Muladevaru Temple at Marikoppa and set forth the following grounds of objection to the said order viz

1 That the idol in question was installed in the Honnali Temple as far back as 1886 and the temple itself was specially built therefor The learned Deputy Commissioner erred in believing that the idol was kept permanently at Marikoppa

2 That the only idol in the temple at Honnali being the present one which is directed to be removed to Marikoppa, the temple itself - will go to ruin if the said idol is removed and the sentiments of innumerable devotees will be outraged

3 The records referred to by the subordinate authorities clearly prove that in 1902 owing to theits and epidemic in Honnali, the idol was temporarily removed to Marikoppa for worship as is being done even now on festival occasions

4 That the Deputy Commissioner is in error in believing that any muchalika has been given regarding the utsavamurthi The Marikoppa Dharmadarsis lent a few jewels for their return It has nothing to do with the idol and the subordinate authorities erred in connecting the two

5 That the opinion of the Agamiks is in favour of the appellant and where the Muladevaru Temple is in an out of the way place and Agamik rites are not observed in the temple, the Utsava Murthy may be kept apart from the Muladevaru

6 That the lower courts have not properly appreciated the evidence on record clearly and unequivocally proves that the Utsava Murthy is permanently installed in Honnali and is only occasionally removed therefrom for worship elsewhere

That the order appealed against is opposed to manool and the evidence both oral and documentary on record

Wherefore the appellant prays that the orders appealed against be kindly set aside and the idol in question be directed to - - remain in Honnali as heretofore

The appellant further humbly prays that pending disposal of the above appeal a stay of execution of the orders of the Subordinate authorities be kindly passed

Subject

Appeal against the order of the Deputy Commissioner Shimoga District directing the removal of the Utsavamurthy of the Haladamma deity from the temple at Honnali to the Mulasthana Temple at Markoppa

Facts of the case

There are traces of evidence in the record to show that there was a Haladamma temple in Honnali town so far back as 1873-74 and 1886 where the Haladamma utsavamurthy used to be worshipped by a pujari In 1902 on the outbreak of plague in Honnali, a theft of some jewels belonging to the utsavamurthy occurred in the Honnali temple As the Honnali temple was a non-Muzrai institution and there was no safety for the jewels of the utsavamurthy, the Amildar ordered the lodging of the jewels in the Taluk Treasury and removal of the utsavamurthy to the Mulasthana temple at Markoppa which is a minor Muzrai institution with a duly Constituted body of Dharmadarsis Since then (1902) the Haladamma utsavamurthy is permanently located in the Markoppa temple under the supervision of the Dharmadarsis

But the practice prevails of sending this utsavamurthy which is a touring deity to other Villages in times of trouble and epidemics to allay their sufferings on the Villagers executing a mutchalika in favour of the Dharmadarsis for the safe return of the deity and the jewels after their object was served. Two such mutchalikas have been executed by the Honnali people in 1917 and in 1925 and the idol was returned to the Mankoppa Dharmadarsis On 9-10-30 the Honnali people as usual executed a mutchalika in favour of the Dharmadarsis of Mankoppa and took the utsavamurthy and the jewels promising to return them to the Dharmadarsis within a week It is however significant that the mutchalika is so worded as to refer to the return of the jewels only and not the idol Months passed by and neither the jewels nor the idol were returned to the Dharmadarsis Orders of successive Amildars were cleverly baffled The matter went up before the Sub Division Officer who ordered that the utsavamurthy must be stationed in the Mulaseevarm temple at Mankoppa as it was beyond dispute that for the last 30 years the idol had its permanent abode at Mankoppa Whatever might have been the state of facts prior to 1902 On appeal the Deputy Commissioner Confirmed the Sub Division Officers order on Condition that the Mankoppa people should hand the utsavamurthy to other Villagers on their executing a mutchalika for the return of the deity in times of trouble

Hence the present appeal The appellant quotes several instances where the utsavamurthy is kept separately from the Mulaseevarm and prays that the order of things which exested prior to 1902 may be restored

The case came up for hearing on 5-12 33 when Mr K T Bhashyam Iyengar for appellant and Mr H Linguppa for Respondents were heard

Order Appeal 8/3233 Dated 21-12 1933

The Utsava Vgraha is said to be an itinerating idol which is taken round to Villages owing to a belief in the efficacy of its presence to allay epidemics It is quite possible that some 30 years ago it made a prolonged halt at Honnali in the course of one of these tours and that a structure was built there for its accomodation But this structure the Respondents Counsel points out is neither in its appearance nor by its situation a temple proper but only a temporary shelter for the deity — a sort of Circuit house for the idol and not its appointed Official residence at headquarters I am inclined to believe this Contention

Prima facie the proper and legitimate place of the Utsava Vigraha is along with the Mula Vigraha at Harikoppa where it has remained uninterruptedly since 1902 till the present dispute arose It is in evidence that in 1917 and again in 1925 when the Honnali people took out the idol they duly returned it to the Dharmada of Harikoppa Their claim on the present occasion to retain it permanently at Honnali seems to be unreasonable and shows short-sighted indifference to the Sanctity and potency of the Coveted idol which alone retain these properties only by Continued association with the Moola Vgraha

I accordingly uphold the decision of the Deputy Commissioner and dismiss the appeal
